

RAMAKRISHNA MISSION SECONDARY SCHOOL LAITLYNGKOT

RKM SECONDARY SCHOOL, LAITLYNGKOT

Ramakrishna Mission Secondary School Laitlyngkot was established on the 6th of February 2019 as a Lower Primary School with only class Nursery in this year. The school was inaugurated with the presence of Secretary Maharaj, the Sordar of Elaka Laitlyngkot, the village headman, teacher students and some parents.

The school was started with 35 number of students including 23 boys, 12 girls and one teacher. Later, in the month of March one more teacher joined in the school. In this year, the school building was not fully constructed, so classes were taken at VEC office building which is situated at Madanlyngkhi, Laitlyngkot. In 2020, the school was upgraded from Nursery to class KG and the upper primary section and secondary section was also started with class VI and class IX in the actual school building with the presence of three more teachers. The classes were upgraded to further more classes on the following years.
