

Ramakrishna Mission LP School : RUMNONG
Dist : East Khasi Hills : Meghalaya

The Ramakrishna Mission LP School Rumnong, from the outset it was a local school run by the village itself. After 2 or 3 years the village cannot pay salary for the teachers. When the planed of the villager ended in smoke, they approached the RKM Cherrapunjee feels pity and immediately took charge of the school in the year 1965. Then school was run smoothly by the RKM till 1988. In the year 1999-2000 the school was closed due to problems (Teachers). When school was closed the villager saw that it was a great lost of the village then the villagers again approached to superiors of the Ramakrishna Mission Ashrama, Cherrapunjee re-open the school for second time. The Ramakrishna Mission again took charge of the school and appointed of the teachers in the year 2001. Thereafter, the school runs smoothly till these days.
