

HISTORY OF RAMAKRISHNA MISSION (H.S.) SCHOOL, SOHRA

RKM HS SCHOOL, SOHRA

On the avenue of time, a century is but a speck of dust, though in mundane existence, it counts for an institution which had been established with the aim of 'man making, character building education' on the line of selfless service to mankind irrespective of caste, creed etc. To materialize the dream of Swami Vivekananda, Swami Prabhananda (Ketaki maharaj) came to this remote part of our mother land India way back in 1924. Braving the inclement weather and insurmountable obstacles, he proved his mettle by establishing Primary schools at Shella (1924) and Nongwar (1928). He took the pains of planting the seed of education that germinated in due course of time and grew to a towering

tree flourishing its branches all across the state of Meghalaya
over the years.
One such branch is Rama Krishna Mission Higher Secondary school, Sohra. Under the aegis of Rama Krishna Mission Ashrama, Sohra, this institution of repute, which was founded in 1931, has spread its name and fame across the length and breadth of the country. This Higher Secondary school, with 976 students on its roll, is greatly indebted to the people of Shella who accorded a ready reception to Revered Swami Prabhananda on his arrival there in September, 1924. Swami Prabhananda (Ketaki maharaj) established a Primary School at Maraikaphon, Sohra in 1931 wherefrom it was shifted to its present site at Khliehshnong, Sohra in 1933. The school was formally recognized by the Director of Education in 1938. The first batch of students appeared for Matriculation Examination conducted by the University of Calcutta in 1939, when, it happened to be the Second-High School in the entire Khasi Hills next only to Shillong. Since its very inception, the school has been relentlessly playing a vital role in shaping the tender minds of the students. By the grace of God and through the untiring effort, unabated enthusiasm of the dedicated monks, the devoted teachers and staff, the constant patronage of the state as well as the central government, well-wishers, the institution has been marching forward providing quality and affordable education for long 93 years of its eventful existence.
